DRESS CODE DETAILS

POLICY 6.35 DRESS CODE

Crosspoint Christian School is a uniform school for the following reasons:

- Students are judged not by their clothes but by the quality of their character.
- Students in uniform generally perform better and have fewer behavioral problems.
- CCS strives for excellence in all areas of a student's life: academics, spiritual walk, sports and appearance.

DRESS CODE VIOLATION CONSEQUENCES

Students should be in appropriate attire whenever they enter the building on a school day.

- If student is out of compliance with the dress code, the issue will be addressed at the administrative level.
- Administration has the authority to make decisions on questionable appearance not specifically addressed within the dress code policy or pertaining to matters where questions of "appropriateness" arise.

Ask administration if you have questions, or concerns on specific items.

IT'S A "NO"

Items that promote tobacco, alcohol, drugs or lifestyles that conflict with the ideas and goals of CCS.

- ANY undergarments showing.
- Half-shirts, spaghetti straps, halter type tops or tight-fitting tank tops. When standing normally, shirts should extend at least to the top of pants.
- No Items that alter the CCS uniform.
- Heavy jewelry, baggy trousers, symbols, or colors.
- Bikini or speedo swimsuits.
- Sweatpants, yoga pants, and basketball shorts.
- Clothing with holes or rips.
- Hoods and Hats on inside school.

General Dress Rules: General dress rules apply while the student is on campus or other settings while students are under the authority of Crosspoint Christian School staff. This includes CCS activity groups or teams representing Crosspoint (class trips, athletic events, performances, etc.) General Dress Rule applies to "Free Dress Day"
